SERENITY

MODELING SUCCESS IN THE UK

My name is Aneta originally from Poland but came to the UK to complete my masters degree in Politics but after completing I quickly realised it was not my passion.

After travelling and enjoying life with modelling part time it has become a full time passion. I have travelled to some amazing places and met some awesome people along the way. I am a bit geeky in many ways, I love big bang theory and game of thrones. I absolutely love Salsa and the culture would love to shoot in Cuba one day.

My ideal man would be Daniel Craig I love a confident man in a suit who is a bit rugged. I am looking forward to more in this adventurous world and what it has to offer much love Aneta
